C.S: "Oh, no! My cool hat is not going to help," says Henry.

C.S: He runs back inside to change his clothes.

C.S: "Okay," says Henry. "Now it is going to be rainy. I am going to put on my boots, and take my umbrella."

C.S: He opens the door... and WHOOSH! Suddenly, the rain is gone, but now the wind is blowing! His umbrella flies away like a yellow bird!

C.S: "Oh, no! My umbrella is going to fly to another city!" says Henry.

C.S: Henry is not happy.

C.S: "Okay, now it is going to be windy. I am going to wear my heavy coat so I don't fly away too!"

Echo: I'm going to wear my heavy coat.

C.S: He opens the door... and BOOM! Suddenly, the sun is back and it is very, VERY hot!

C.S: "Oh, no! Now I am going to be very hot in this coat!" says Henry.

C.S: Just then, his friend Noah arrives. He is wearing a T-shirt, a hat, big boots, and a heavy coat. He is holding his umbrella and wearing sunglasses. He looks very funny!

C.S: "Hello, Henry!" says Noah. "My mom said the weather is going to change a lot today!"

C.S: Henry laughs. "Your mom is very smart! Your clothes are going to work for any weather. "

C.S: So Henry puts on funny clothes too, like Noah. They look silly, but they are ready for anything! They are going to have a great day in the park!
